CONCORDIA PLAYS WELL IN PRICETON TOURNAMENT

Friday November 27	Northeastern	5	Concordia	3
Saturday November 28	New Hampshire	4	Concordia	0
Sunday November 29	Concordia	4	Princeton	0

The Stingers women's hockey team travelled to Princeton, New Jersey this past weekend for the prestigious Princeton Hockey Tournament.

"We played well all weekend with the exception of 10 minutes in the second game," said Coach Julie Healy.

On Friday night the Stingers outplayed Northeastern in the third period but still came out on the short end of a 5-3 score. N.U. scored an empty net goal with three seconds left to clinch the game. Therese Brisson scored all three of Concordia's goals and was named Player of the Game. Northeastern were National championship runnersup last year.

Saturday's game featured N.C.A.A. Champion New Hampshire and the Stingers. New Hampshire scored eleven seconds into the game and exploded for three goals in ten minutes of the second period to secure a 4-0 victory. The Stingers did not look out of place in the game and re-affirmed their status as Canada's top college team.

The Stingers rebounded Sunday with a convincing 4-0 win over host Princeton. Concordia played great defensively as Karen Kane registered the shutout. The scoring was shared equally by Janet Neely, France Sabourin, Nathalie Hains and Wendy Harcourt.

Concordia travels to Lennoxville to face Bishop's this Wednesday. The Stingers are also gearing up for a return match with unbeaten Laval this Saturday.
